

Baby's Badass Burgers

In search of that perfect cheeseburger? What about a flawless, classic burger without a jacked up restaurant price tag? You're not alone. Former New York restaurateur, Erica Cohen, had a dream and event-planning expert, Lori Barbera, had a network. Together they founded Baby's Badass Burgers! We discovered their stroke of genius on a dark, hungry night while in need of a burger fix. Then, out of nowhere, appeared a hot pink truck offering all the fixings!

The menu had everything from beef to to veggie, and yes, even hot dogs for those difficult, picky eaters who never graduated from the kids menu. Of course, we ordered one of everything and went back for seconds! This YH-recommended meal is tasty, affordable, and convenient!
